

Problems in Tumour Pathology

Saturday 28th April 2012

Education Centre, The Christie, Manchester, M20 4BX

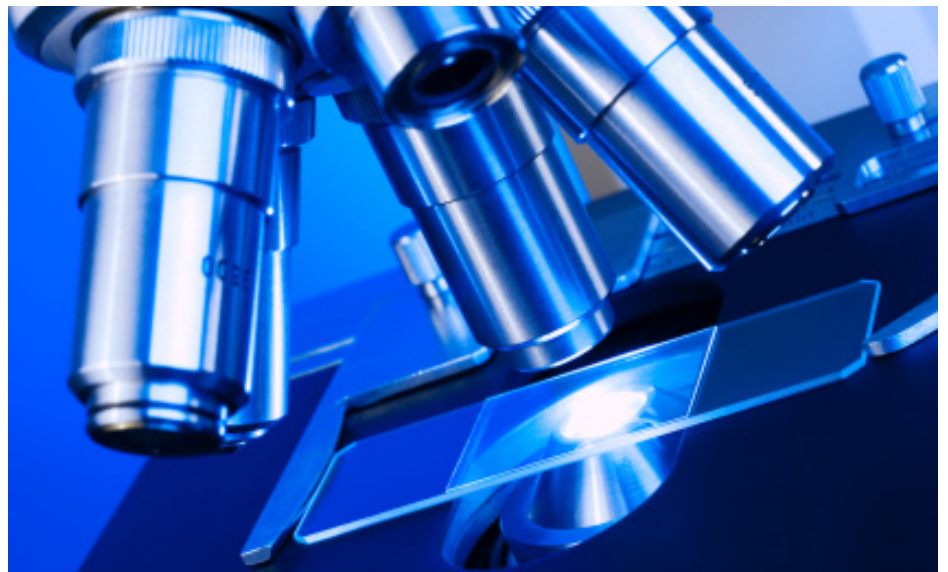

Overview

Organised by Dr L P Menasce, this course will focus on difficult thoracic/mediastinal neoplastic or pseudo neoplastic lesions (including haemolymphoid lesions)

Keynote Speakers

Professor Mark Wick
Professor of Pathology
University of Virginia, USA

Professor Cesar Moran
Professor of Pathology
University of Texas
MD Anderson Cancer
Center, USA

This event is accredited by the Royal College of Pathology

Suitable For: Consultant pathologists and Specialist Registrars. The course will comprise lectures and case presentations

Study Day Fee: £190 (Concessions for Northwest Deanery Trainees)
The fee includes CD containing summary of lectures and key images of the cases, coffee & lunch

Further Info: Email liz.ryan@christie.nhs.uk, call 0161 446 3277 or fax 0161 446 3300

Agenda

08.15 Registration

09.05 Welcome & announcements

09.30 Thymoma: current status

Professor Cesar Moran

10.00 Case presentation

Professor Cesar Moran

10.50 Coffee break

11.10 Haemolymphoid lesions of the mediastinum

Dr Andrew Norton

12.00 Case presentation

Dr Patrick Shenjere

12.45 Lunch

13.45 Mesenchymal tumours of the mediastinum

Professor Mark Wick

14.45 Case presentation

Professor Mark Wick

15.45 Coffee break

16.10 Case presentation

Dr Daisuke Nonaka

17.00 End of meeting - distribution of CPD certificates